About Geleen Antonio

Hello, fellow adventurous souls! I'm Geleen Antonio, the passionate creator behind Journey Card, here to empower first-time solo female travelers like you. With an educational background in neuroscience and a decade of climbing the corporate ladder, I realized I wasn't fulfilled and took the leap to pursue a life of freedom, purpose, and excitement. As a seasoned solo traveler to over 30 countries, I understand the fears and doubts that might be holding women back from solo traveling. With Journey Card, my goal is to help women live more meaningful lives by delving into their own transformative solo travel journey of self-discovery, meaningful connections, and unforgettable experiences.
